Anchor

We have this hope, a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul...Heb.6:19a

First Baptist Church , 215 Ann Street, Ravenswood, WV 26164 ~

As we move into the month of May, we start thinking of remembrance and sacrifice. One of the reasons is that we often associate the month of May with sacrifice was due to Decoration Day or what was later called Memorial Day. It's the one time of the year, when we remember those who gave their life in service to our nation. Memorial Day honors the men and women in our armed services that gave their life for our freedom. According to the History Channel, Memorial Day became an official federal holiday in 1971.

I'm reminded of the scripture about the ultimate sacrifice one can make. In the book of John 15:13, we read, "There is no greater love than to lay down's one's life for one's friends" (NLT). When soldiers enlist, they do so on their own merit, knowing full well of the sacrifice and risks that lay ahead for each of them. Deployments can mean time away from families and active duty in combat zones can mean debilitating injuries or even death. The threat is real.

These soldiers do not run from battles, they run to them. In doing so, many gave their lives for their country, putting aside their wellbeing for others. In doing so, we honor each man and woman in uniform who gave their life for our country with this article. For us civilians, we may not even really consider the cost of military service. But, we still enjoy the benefits of living in a free nation, under the might of the most powerful military on the planet. I guess the same is true as for us as Christians.

Many of us live our lives as Christians every day, as though tomorrow will always come. We do not really worry about what needs done, or how will I do this? We don't always worry about our family members who are not in church. We simply enjoy the freedom we have in Christ to live a good life and be a good neighbor. But our Christianity -- our freedom in Jesus, came with a cost. Jesus laid down his life for us. When Jesus went to the cross for our sins, he became the end-all sacrifice for mankind. There would no longer be a need for sacrifices in the temples. There would no longer be a veil to separate man from God. We had all been grafted into Jesus Christ, by his death, burial and resurrection. Salvation became a free gift for those who would believe on him. His selfless sacrifice was for you and for me.

During this month of remembrance, take time to think about what Jesus has done for you. Not only did he love you while you were still out in sin, but he took the beating and nails for you, so you could be restored unto God, and be considered holy and blameless.

Let us use this Memorial Day to remember those loved ones who have went on into eternity and are waiting for us, but also let us remember the heartfelt sacrifices that so many veterans gave with their life on the battlefield. Let us use this example to teach our children and grandchildren about Jesus and sacrifice in general. We can teach them about the Lord's willingness to lay His life down for us. Above all else, we can explain that the graves in the cemetery hold the remains of our loved ones. But there is one empty tomb....and that's Jesus' tomb. It's empty, because He overcame death and the grave. Oh Death, where is thy sting?

The point is, don't miss the opportunity that the month of May gives us to share our faith with someone we love. We can use something as dynamic as Memorial Day, to make our faith come alive in the eyes of someone we love. We just have to engage in the conversation.

Prayerfully,
Pastor Toby

WE have had a very eventful month of April! With Palm Sunday, Easter and Sunrise Service, and our Revolving Revival - the kids have been very busy.

We had a great Sunrise Service program! The kids performed the play Victory written by our own Nikki Nicholson. Then they sang for both morning services. I was so proud of how they did - both with performance and attitudes.

Our Youth along with others in the Good Hope Association led the Praise and Worship for youth night at revival (May 1) and did a terrific job - even if they weren't sure of the songs. I love it that I can ask them to help with something and they just jump right in.

We've been having an average of about 20 to 25 for each meeting, even with some of our regulars missing.

I feel blessed to be a part of this group and I thank everyone for the opportunity to be their leader.

Blessings, Ann

Think It Over

I'll go where You want me to go, dear Lord;

Real service is what I desire;
I'll say what You want me to say, dear Lord;

But don't ask me to sing in the choir.

I'll say what You ask me to say, dear Lord;

I like to see things come to pass;
But don't ask me to teach girls and boys,
dear Lord -

I'd rather just stay in my class.

I'll do what You want me to do, dear Lord;

I yearn for the Kingdom to thrive;
I'll give You my nickels and dimes, dear Lord -

But please don't ask me to tithe.

I'll go where You want me to go, dear Lord;

I'll say what You want me to say;
I'm busy just now with myself, dear Lord -
I'll help You some other day.

-Author Unknown

I'll learn what You want me to learn, dear Lord;

To know You will make me my best;
But Sunday School is so early, dear Lord
And Sunday is my day of rest.

-Susan

Attend Sunday School Today!

WIFE

I WILL be faithful to my wife, to love and honor her, and be willing to lay down my life for her as Jesus Christ did for me.

That's a strong statement, but I wonder how many men would. I believe to answer that honestly men, you must have the presence of God within you. Its true many husbands, in the face of a dramatic emergency, might choose to die for their wives. It's not about being willing to die for her in a blaze of glory, but rather to sacrifice our lives every day for her. It begins with the will of God.

God alone designed the marvelous mystery of marriage. He designed it to be the most intimate relationship on earth. To be the most romantic and satisfying experience God must be in the center of it.

Most people don't get this. They don't understand how special and unique God has made marriage between a man and woman. Today in our society I believe this Holy matrimony God designed has been mistreated and made worthless or common.

I said earlier, I believe God has to be that solid foundation in a marriage. It's called Holiness and allows us to see our wife's in a new way. It allows you to set her apart in your eyes above all other women on the face of the earth. She has become a person to cherish, love, and protect for the rest of your life. God made woman, so make her holy for the treasure God has given to you.

I realize God has created marriage to be a living portrait on earth to reveal the loving relationship of Jesus Christ. I believe that God's calling for you as husband was not marry the women you love, but love the woman you married. I DO realize that is a tall order sometimes. Maybe another Anchor Article. Our daily behavior around our wives cannot be based upon their actions or our feelings, because neither of these is always good. It should be founded on a higher standard, Jesus Christ.

His love for us is beyond our imagination. His love for us is based upon God's choice, commitment, and unchanging character, not on us. God loves us not because we are lovable but because He is so loving. Nothing we do can generate more love from Him or take His love away from us. His Holy Spirit becomes our endless supply, pouring out the unconditional love of God into our hearts. This installs our thoughts and attitudes, then dictates how we act and react to one another. As husbands, we are called to put to death our own selfish desires to meet our wife's deepest needs. To say NO to what we want so we can say YES to what she needs.

I believe when a husband or wife follows the example of Jesus amazing things begin to happen. We can disconnect from our mate's imperfections and plug into God's nature. Instead of saying "I love you because..." we can honestly say, "I love you, period. I love you when you're beautiful to me and when you're not. I love you when you treat me well and when you don't. And I'm daily relying on God's unconditional love to pour through my life into you. For better or for worse, in sickness and in health, till death do us part---that's how much I love you."

2019 Mission Outreach Project

Rice for Students in Thailand

GOAL $6,000

Imagine sitting in a room on the other side of the globe and hearing 50 children welcome you by singing, "You are my sunshine, my only sunshine, you make me happy when skies are grey." The House of Blessing preschool is located in Chiang Mai, Thailand and was established to teach ethnic minority children the Thai language as well as the skills needed to flourish in the Thai school system. The school was founded by International Ministries (IM) missionary, Kim Brown, 17 years ago. Over 300 students have attended and graduated from the preschool to move on to the Thai school system.

Our mission team was led by Lisa and John Simmons, now retired from the West Virginia Baptist Convention's office and former missionaries in Chiang Mai. The team was composed of their daughter, Chelsie Simmons, Dylan Evans, Sandra Lutz, Nancy Duckworth, Judy McCauley and myself. We spent three fun-filled mornings doing skits, crafts and games to teach the students the story of David and how Jesus looks at our hearts. The kids were very loving and seemed to truly enjoy the time we spent with them as much as we enjoyed being with them. Ninety eight percent of the preschool students are from the Lahu tribe and we were able to visit one local community where many of these students live. Their parents moved from the mountain communities to find jobs in Chiang Mai. We also traveled three hours from Chiang Mai to visit a Lahu mountain community. It was a wonderful blessing to be able to see and play with the kids that our American Baptist Women (ABW) will be supporting with our 2019 Mission Outreach Project (MOP).

Our MOP 2019 Project will be buying rice for these House of Blessing students and their families. The rice program was developed by the staff after they noticed the students were frequently absent or arriving exhausted. The teachers discovered that the kids were spending their evenings in the Night Market begging for money to help their parents provide food for their families. Although the parents are working, they struggle to provide for the basic needs of the family. The rice program provides rice if the parents promise not to make their children beg at night. The teachers then noticed a significant difference in the children coming to school more rested and eager to learn. The program has been successful, but unfortunately, the House of Blessing is having a difficult time funding the program. Our MOP goal of $6,000 will provide 16 House of Blessing families enough rice for the entire year!

Please pray for each one of this ministry, the people they serve and the missionaries. If you would like ideas for MOP fundraisers, please contact me at dlallemont@yahoo.com. If you prefer to make a donation and have a women's ministry program in place, please go through your regular channel of giving. If not, you are encouraged to donate individually.
